MEDALS GIVEN COMMANDER LUCIEN YOUNG

General Service Medal.

Naval Order Medal.

Alaska Medal.

Huron Medal.

War Service Medal.

MEDALS AWARDED TO COMMANDER LUCIEN YOUNG, U. S. N., FOR PERSONAL BRAVERY AND DISTINGUISHED SERVICES.

These Were Given to the Well-Known Naval Officer for Distinguished Services in War and in Peace.

Commander Lucien Young, in command of the United States gunboat Bennington, at present the station ship for Honolulu, has the right to wear upon the breast of his uniform at least four medals which tell stories of the most distinguished conduct in the face of an enemy and personal bravery. Were the stories woven about each medal to be told in detail they would read like romances. But, as shown above, they tell the story of the heroism of an American naval officer, who, whenever called upon to show his mettle, has never failed to stand the test.

One of the medals of which the commander should be proud was awarded for feats which were graphically described in the newspapers of the United States when the American fleet was girdling the Island of Cuba at the outbreak of the Spanish War. Commander Lucien Young is the only American naval officer who has the right to wear the type of medal shown on the right of the cut. It has four bars, the only medal of the kind in existence, for even Admirals Sampson and Schley had only one bar to their credit. The name of the "U. S. S. Hist" appears in bold relief. That was the gallant little gunboat which Lucien Young was in command of when, as commanding officer of the gunboat flotilla, he entered the bay of Manzanillo, where the Spanish guns blazed at the fleet at close quarters. The Hist was struck eleven times during that battle and one shell exploded in the engine-room. The concussion of one explosion knocked Commander Young down, but strange to say no one was hurt aboard the little vessel. The Hist has the honor of being the American vessel that was struck more times during the Spanish War than any other vessel in the navy.

The other bar tells of the officer's presence at the battle of Santiago. Each bar represents a recognized battle, as determined by the Navy department. There were three fights at Manzanillo and one at Santiago.

The medal to the left of the "highest medal" is made of gold, and was awarded Lucien Young by act of Congress for the personal heroism he displayed at the time the U. S. S. Huron was wrecked on the Atlantic coast in 1877. He was an ensign then. During a storm the vessel was wrecked and the only way to safety lay in a line being carried ashore, or that some one get ashore and get help. Lucien Young was the young officer who volunteered for this service. Overboard he went into the boiling sea, and for eight and one-half hours he was buffeted by the seas in swimming four miles. He reached shore, got help and everybody aboard the warship was saved. The next medal is also of gold, and was awarded him by the State of New York for an act of bravery which consisted in his jumping overboard from the U. S. S. Alaska in the Mediterranean to save a sailor who had fallen overboard. Lucien Young, after a long struggle, managed to keep the man afloat until assistance arrived and both were brought on board safely.

The next medal is one of five medals. Only five American naval officers are entitled to wear them, and Commander Young is the head of the list. The medal represents the Naval Order of the United States, of which he is Commander. It was awarded for general service in the Spanish War.

The medal at the extreme left in the picture is the general service medal awarded by the United States to all officers participating in the Spanish War.

And, by the way, under a recent decision, Lucien Young may be an Admiral next year. Regularly he could have expected promotion to that grade in 1908, but it is likely to occur sooner.

HALEIWA.

The Haleiwa Hotel, Honolulu's famous country resort, on the line of the Oahu Railway, contains every modern improvement and affords its guests an opportunity to enjoy all amusements—golf, tennis, billiards, fresh and salt water bathing, shooting, fishing, riding and driving. Tickets, including railway fare and one full day's room and board, are sold at the Honolulu station and Trent & Company for $5.00. For departure of trains consult time table.

On Sundays, the Haleiwa Limited, a two-hour train, leaves at 8:22 a. m.; returning, arrives in Honolulu at 10:10 p. m.

IS THERE ANOTHER?

A theater ticket is a revokable license, and the purchaser can be refused admission and the money paid for the ticket refunded. The purchaser is also entitled to receive his expenses, such as car fare, hack fare, or other necessary expenditure. Judge Frazer rendered this decision yesterday in the suit of Oliver Taylor against S. Morton Cohn, manager of the Star Theater to recover $5000 damages. Taylor is a colored man and is a Pullman car conductor. The Star Theater refused to allow him and his friends to occupy box seats. According to the decision a ticket may be revoked whether sold to a white or colored person.

McCart Stewart, himself a colored man, who appeared for Taylor, took ten days' time to decide upon the future course in the case.—Oregonian, May 28.

COMMANDER LUCIEN YOUNG, U. S. N.

In an old Virginia cemetery there is a weather-beaten tombstone bearing these inscriptions:

"I await my husband. May 26, 1840.

"Here I am. December 14, 1861."

Some joker has added:

"Late as usual."

Danderine

GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR

AND WE CAN

PROVE IT

The Great Danderine Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor.

That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs, resulting in a strenuous and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

January 3, 1905.

Dear Doctor Knowlton:—

You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid.

I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it.

Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation.

Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle

FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free by return mail to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knott-Hen Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.
